

City of West Allis

Application Summary for Special Exception to Zoning and Special Event Permit

Applicant

Ali Acevedo

Event Name

All Goods Fest

Event Location

The entire block of 72nd and Greenfield to 72nd Orchard, along with the public parking lot behind All Goods and Camino.

Event Date

July 12, 2025

Event Start and End Times

7am-7pm

Description of Event

All Goods Fest is a one-day community celebration of vintage fashion, streetwear, art, and culture — hosted by All Goods. Featuring 50+ vendors, live music, food, and exclusive drops, the event brings together collectors, creators, and local businesses for an unforgettable shopping and cultural experience.

If any of the cells are blank, the information is not applicable to this application.

Will any part of this event take place inside of a building or structure?

No

Is this a commercial or residential property?

Commercial

Will you have one or more tents in excess of 400 square feet?

No

Does the event involve members of the public going onto residential property?

What is the maximum capacity of the people on the premises?

Not Sure

When and what is the expected peak attendance?

250

Provide number and location of garbage and recycling containers at the event.

8 in the middle of the street and near the food trucks in the parking lot

Provide details regarding the timely removal of garbage and recycling materials during and after the event, include the name of the company which will be removing the materials.

garbages will be removed same day.

Are you requesting police presence?

No

Describe the desired police presence:

Will there be alcohol available?

No

Describe the type of alcohol and who will be selling/providing it:

Will there be live music/entertainment or amplified sound be used?

No

Describe music/entertainment:

Does this event involve closing the street, sidewalk or impede any other public property?

Yes

Total Estimated Costs:

$0

--