To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to appeal the enclosed order to register my dog as dangerous within the city limits. I have owned Bella for a little over a year and have never had any issues with her before, she has two small children in the home and has never gone after them. This was an isolated incident and I feel it is unfair to have me label her as dangerous. We have a fenced in backyard and if she is in the front yard which is very rare, she is tied up and someone is outside with her. She is a family pet and to ask me to either remove, euthanize or label her is wrong. The said incident was just an accident, there are no other documents of her attacking anyone/anything registered anywhere.

Sincerely,

NARRATIVEINITIAL CALL

On 09/04/17 at approx. 1647 hrs., officers were dispatched to 2101 S. 88 St., for a dog vs dog bite that occurred earlier in the day. Upon arrival, I made contact with Jennifer K. Heck, F/W 04/06/79, and Stephanie J. Lacasse, F/W 01/30/82.

STATEMENT OF JENNIFER K. HECK

Jennifer said her dog, Jax, was attacked by two other dogs while her friend, Stephanie was walking him. She said it occurred some time between 1030 hrs and 1100 hrs. Jax had a puncture in the upper right rear leg, and was limping around.

Jax is a male three year old english setter. He is white with tan spots. His rabies vaccination tag is #7350. I asked Jennifer if she wanted the owner of the dog to receive a citation. She said she did not want that and just wanted it documented.

STATEMENT OF STEPHANIE J. LACASSE

After speaking with Jennifer I spoke with Stephanie. She said she was walking Jax at approx. 1030 hrs. While walking on the west sidewalk in front of 2153 S. 88 St., she heard two dogs barking and running toward her, from behind. Moments later, behind the dogs, was a teenage male who was trying to get the dogs back. The two dogs looked like they were biting Jax, until the male was able to get both dogs back inside the residence. She ultimately walked toward Jennifer's residence to return Jax.

Jennifer said the incident took place for less than 30 seconds. She did not know which dog caused the puncture in the back leg. She said both dogs were shorter, but stockier. She did not know what kind of dogs they were, but thought possibly a pitbull mix. She said she did not see them with leashes.

STATEMENT OF MICHAEL L. ALBRECHT

After speaking with Jennifer, I responded to the incident address, 2153 S. 88 St. I made contact with the owner, Michael L. Albrecht, M/W 08/30/95, and his friend, Tyler D. Day, M/W 08/16/99. Michael said the two dogs involved in the altercation belonged to him. He did not witness the incident, but Tyler did.

Michael said Bella is a two year old female blue heeler german shepherd mix. She is black with some tan. The second dog, Lola, is a one year old female pitbull bullmastiff mix. She is tan in color.

Michael said the rabies vaccinations are up to date and he would give me the date/vet information of the rabies shots for the dogs.

STATEMENT OF TYLER D. DAY

After speaking with Michael, I spoke with Tyler. He said he was with the two dogs before they exited the residence. They were near the back door when someone opened the door, and the dogs went outside. He saw the dogs playing on their way toward the front, and heard barking. He immediately ran to the front to see them jumping on another dog. He was able to get both dogs inside the house, and said the incident did not take more than 25 seconds.

Tyler did not know which dog bit Jax. I asked Michael and Tyler which dog was aggressive with other dogs. They said Bella was the protective one, and believed she may have been the one to bite Jax.

DANGEROUS DOG FORM

Michael was issued the Dangerous Dog Form. The original copy was ultimately sent to the Department of Health.

CASE DISPOSITION

Two dogs (Bella and Lola) were able to get out of a residence and they rushed toward another dog (Jax) being walked. Jax had one puncture mark on his rear leg.

Michael Albrecht was issued a Dangerous Dog form. Jennifer Heck, the owner of Jax, did not want a citation issued.
