RESTRAINING ORDER VIOLATION...1100 S. 60TH STREET
 Officer Piontek reports... On 04/15/03 at approximately 1700 hours Daryl E. Erdman, M/W, DOB 01/13/60, came to the station to report a harassment injunction order violation. Erdman claimed that while he drove past the Top Gun Saloon on today's date at 1522 hours, Steven T. Robinson, M/W, DOB 01/31/60, against whom he has a harassment injunction order, shouted the words "You're dead" at him. Erdman stated that he interprets this as a threat. Investigation showed that, according the Milwaukee County Sheriff's Department, Robinson has never been served with the order, and thus there is no violation. Erdman was advised of this, and he stated that he will pursue the matter further with MCSO.

TROUBLE WITH A CUSTOMER

Russell:Thomas Dawson reports he came from 97th and Greenfield Ave to go confront the owner of the Top Gun Saloon, Steven Robinson regarding Thomas' girlfriend Cheryl Bagin. Thomas reports that when he got to the bar, Steven Came out with a club yelling profanities as he, Thomas sat in his vehicle parked on the west side of 60th St. Steven reported that Thomas made threats on the phone to come and "kick my ass" and that he did go out with the club. After talking with both, they resolved the matter. Steven was sternly reprimanded regarding the club, and he was advised that the neighbors told me today that they are sick and tired of his bar, and would like it closed down. Akll neighbors were advised to contact their alderperson.
