The following is a summary of reported incidents involving licensed businesses, including reported tavern violations and calls for police service during the month of January.

Incident reports:

Case # 13-00085, 01/03/2013, at 0112 hrs – Drunken Duck, 5906 W. Burnham St.

On 01/03/2013, at 0112 hrs., Officers responded to Drunken Duck, 5906 W. Burnham St (unknown caller reported incident to police) regarding a fight complaint. Investigation revealed the victim was involved in an argument and minor physical altercation inside the tavern with the Offender. After the brief altercation, all parties were kicked out of the bar and the bar closed down for the night. Contact was made with the bar owners, Hector E. Guillermo and Lindsay A. Guillermo. They acknowledged that a disturbance occurred inside the tavern and they failed to call the police. Lindsey did state that the victim asked her to call 911 after the incident, however, she did not call as the parties were separated and there were no more problems. Hector stated he did hear the victim ask Lindsey to call 911 and she did not. The identity of the offender is not known.

Case # 13-00176, 01/05/2013, at 2348 hrs – Quenchers, 7731 W. Becher St.

On 01/05/2013 at 2348 hrs., Officers responded to Quenchers, 7731 W. Becher St., for a trouble call. Investigation revealed a physical altercation between two males inside the tavern. The individuals struck each other and one left the tavern in his vehicle. Dispatch provided a vehicle description and Officers stopped this vehicle. The individual was arrested for OWI. West Allis Rescue responded and provided care to the other individual who had an approximate ¼ inch laceration on his nose, which was bleeding and had swelling around his nose and eye. He was transported to Froedtert Hospital. Neither individual wanted to press charges against each other. It is not clear who the caller was, however, the bartender was cooperative with the police on scene and provided a statement as to what transpired.
