The following is a summary of reported incidents involving licensed businesses, including reported tavern violations and calls for police service during the month of February.

Incident reports:

Case #16-5595, 02/14/2016, 0130 hrs: 1450 S 79 St – Paulie’s Field Trip

On 02/14/2016, Officers responded to Paulie’s Field Trip for an assault complaint. On scene, Officers spoke with a female, who stated an unknown male physically attacked her in the bar. Several patrons held the male back and she ran out of the bar, walked home and later noticed she had a minor scratch on her right forearm. She wanted the male arrested and believes he is a regular patron at the bar. Contact was made with the bartender, who stated the female and this male, who was her boyfriend, were kicked out due to their high level of intoxication. No arrests were made.

Case #16-6387, 02/20/2016, 1534 hrs: 7216 W. Lincoln Av – Jimmy B’s Trails End

On 02/20/2016, Officers responded to a trouble call at Jimmy B’s for a female party threatening everyone in the bar. When an Officer arrived on scene, she observed a highly intoxicated female party standing at the doorway. The female became uncooperative and was directed into a nearby wall. She was eventually identified and found to have a valid body only warrant through the Milwaukee County Sheriff’s Department. She was arrested for the warrant and given a local citation for Disorderly Conduct and Resisting an Officer.
