NARRATIVE*INITIAL CALL FOR SERVICE

On 12/30/14 at approximately 2115hrs, exotic dancer Colleen M. Riordan (f/w, 11/17/73), came into the station to report she was physically assaulted by another dancer she knows as "Lorrie," later identified as Lorrie A. Calderon (f/w, 05/25/70), while working at the Spot Lite Gentlemen's Club (6426 W. Greenfield Ave.).

CONTACT WITH COLLEEN M. RIORDAN

Riordan stated the assault happened at approximately 0130hrs on 12/30/14 (later shown on video to happen at 0055hrs on 12/30/14) when the Calderon began yelling at her while in the dancer's dressing room. Calderon then began pushing and punching Riordan, resulting in Riordan suffering multiple contusions and lacerations on her face, along with a broken finger. Riordan stated there were multiple witnesses, and the incident may have been caught on camera.

I asked Riordan to tell me how this all began, and she prior to the assault, she and Calderon had never had any issues, and in fact had spent time together socially. Riordan stated the morning of 12/29/30, she and Calderon were "hanging out," and she was driving Calderon around because Calderon stated she did not want to go home due to issues with her husband and sister. According to Riordan, Calderon told her that her sister had stolen $50 from her and she was very upset about that.

Riordan stated they parted ways at approximately 1100hrs on 12/29/30, and everything was fine between the two of them. Riordan went to work at the Spot Lite that night, but stated Calderon was not at the club. Sometime during her shift, Riordan stated Calderon called her on the phone and asked her if she was working, and how many other girls were working. Riordan told her there were a few other girls working, and Calderon told Riordan she was going to come to the club in approximately 1 hour to work. I asked Riordan if there were any discernible problems at that point, and she said the conversation was friendly and she did not detect anything was wrong.

Riordan stated Calderon arrived at the Spot Lite, and the two women did not converse for quite a while. At approximately 0050hrs on 12/30/14, Calderon began yelling at Riordan while she was standing near the jukebox. I asked Riordan what Calderon was saying, and she said Calderon stated, "You bitch, I'm going to knock your head off." When Riordan asked her what she was talking about, Calderon replied, "You know what I'm talking about!" Riordan stated Calderon then pushed her with both hands. Riordan immediately walked away into the back dressing room.

Approximately 5 minutes later, Calderon entered the dressing room and again confronted Riordan. Riordan stated they were the only two people in the dressing room at this time. Riordan stated Calderon was yelling at her and said to Riordan, "You're a bitch, I shouldn't have trusted you." Riordan replied, "Can you just leave me alone?" Riordan stated Calderon suddenly began punching her repeatedly in the face with a closed fist. Riordan estimated Calderon punched her approximately 30 times. Riordan stated Calderon also grabbed her by the back of the head while pushing her backwards into a tabletop/mirror.

Riordan stated she "didn't have it in her to fight back," as Calderon was hitting her. Riordan stated she only fought back after Calderon bit her on the right breast. Riordan told me that happened after she had been pushed into the mirror, and after Calderon bit her Riordan grabbed a can of hair spray and hit Calderon on the head. Riordan stated Calderon backed off after being hit, and the fight ended shortly thereafter. Riordan stated as she was being punched by Calderon, she yelled out 3-4 times for someone to call the police.

I asked Riordan if anyone came in to break up the fight, and she said towards the end another dancer, later identified as Luisa C. Coronado (f/w, 05/06/93), came into the dressing room, but did not break up the fight. After the fight, Riordan stated she did not remember if any other words were exchanged between she and Coronado. Riordan left the dressing room, and went outside to her car, where she said she fell asleep and slept until approximately 0930hrs on 12/30/14. I asked Riordan why she went to sleep and did not call the police once she was out of the club, and she stated she had been drinking and she just wanted to calm down.

I asked Riordan why she did not call the police when she woke up, and she stated she had an appointment to get to with her son at approximately 1130hrs. Riordan stated at approximately 1430hrs, she and her son went to Elmbrook Memorial Hospital, (19333 West North Avenue, Brookfield), to have her injuries evaluated. After leaving the hospital, she came into the West Allis Police Department to report the incident.

I asked Riordan who else was present in the bar during the incident, and she stated the bartender, Audrey M. Borback (f/w, 02/03/56), the bouncer, Justin M. Voegtline (m/w, 04/13/90), and Coronado were all present.

OFFICER OBSERVATIONS

I observed a raised contusion, dark purple/black in color, around Riordan's left eye, multiple (2-3) scratches/scrapes on the left side of her face, and her left ring finger was set in a splint.

Riordan also presented me with medical paperwork that showed she was treated at Elmbrook Memorial Hospital for a fracture to her left ring finger, a contusion and lacerations to her face, a bite mark on her right breast, and neck pain.

LACK OF CONSENT

At no time did Riordan give Calderon permission to punch her multiple times in the face.

PHOTOGRAPHS OF INJURIES

See Officer Christianson's supplemental report.

MEDICAL RECORDS RELEASE CONSENT FORM

On 12/30/14, Riordan signed a consent for release of her medical records. The form was subsequently scanned and attached to the case file.

CONTACT WITH LUISA C. CORONADO

On 12/31/14, I made contact with Coronado at the Spot Lite. I asked Coronado if she witnessed any of the confrontation between Riordan and Calderon, and she said she only saw the end of the fight in the dressing room. Coronado stated when she entered the dressing room, the two women were fighting with each other. I asked Coronado if she heard anyone say anything, and she stated Riordan looked at her and said, "Bitch, you ain't gonna stop this?" Coronado stated she did not intervene and stop the fight, but the women broke up the fight a few moments later.

I asked Coronado if she witnessed any confrontation prior to the one in the dressing room, and she said no. I asked Coronado if she knew what the women were fighting about, and she said no.

CONTACT WITH JUSTIN M. VOEGTLINE

On 12/31/14, I made contact with Voegtline at the Spot Lite. I asked Voegtline if he witnessed any of the confrontation between Riordan and Calderon, and he said no. Voegtline stated prior to the fight, Borback told him to "get back to the dressing room," because she thought a fight might happen. Voegtline stated that by the time he got back to the dressing room, the fight was over. When he walked into the dressing room he observed blood dripping from Riordan's left eye and a bite mark on her right breast. Voegtline stated Riordan left the dressing room, and he did not observe any more problems.

I asked Voegtline if he knew what the fight was about, and he stated he heard from one of the dancers that Calderon was upset because she thought Riordan stole $50 from her.

CONTACT WITH AUDREY M. BORBACK

On 12/31/14, I made contact with Borback at the Spot Lite. I asked Borback if she witnessed any of the confrontation between Riordan and Calderon, and she said no. Borback stated by the time she got back to the dressing room, the two women were already separated. Borback remarked that she did not initially think the fight was "that serious."

I asked Borback if she knew what the fight was about, and she said no, but approximately 5 minutes prior to the fight in the dressing room she observed Calderon push Riordan while they were talking near the jukebox.

CONTACT WITH EDWARD D. BOMBACH

On 12/31/14, I made contact with Bombach at the Spot Lite. Bombach stated he was not at the club the night of the fight, but had heard about it. Bombach confirmed the presence of video surveillance cameras in the back dressing room, and he agreed to show us the footage of the fight.

As Bombach brought up the video footage, he pointed out Riordan sitting in the dressing room at approximately 0050hrs on 12/30/14. At approximately 0055.20hrs, a dark-haired woman entered the room, and Bombach confirmed the woman was Calderon. At approximately 0055.40hrs, Calderon begins to throw multiple punches at Riordan with her right hand. The woman can then be seen fighting for approximately 1 minute. At approximately 0056.41hrs, the women were separated and the fight appeared to be over.

Bombach was unable to make a copy of the surveillance footage, so a video of the surveillance footage was taken using a department issued digital camera.

ATTEMPT CONTACT WITH LORRIE A. CALDERON

On 01/05/15, officers went to the Spot Lite to attempt contact with Calderon. I spoke with Bombach, who stated Calderon had not been into work since the incident on 12/30/14.

SECOND ATTEMPT CONTACT WITH LORRIE A. CALDERON

On 01/06/15, officers visited two separate addresses in Milwaukee where Calderon had lived. Officers first made contact with m/b resident at 1966 S. 8 St. in Milwaukee, who told officers he and his wife had lived at that address for 5 years. The house at 1966 S. 8 St. was split into three separate addresses, and the resident denied knowing anyone fitting the description of Calderon. Officers were unable to make contact with anyone at the other two addresses at the house.

Officers then attempted to contact Calderon at 2210 S. 11 St. in Milwaukee. Upon arrival, officers observed a note taped to the front door that informed guests to call a phone number rather than knock on the door. The note was signed, "Lorrie." I called the number and asked to speak with Lorrie. I was informed by the party on the phone that Lorrie did not live at this address, and that she lived "somewhere on Lincoln," (W. Lincoln Ave.). The party also informed me that Lorrie had left town and was in Shawano, WI visiting her mother. The party was not cooperative with me past the aforementioned information.

SECOND CONTACT WITH COLLEEN M. RIORDAN

On 01/06/15, Riordan called the station to check on the status of the case. Riordan stated the rumor she heard at the Spot Lite was that Calderon left the Milwaukee area shortly after the incident on 12/30/14. I told Riordan that I was trying to track down Calderon to speak with her, and Riordan told me that Calderon lives in the area of "11th and Lincoln." I asked Riordan if she remembered the address, and she said no. I asked Riordan if Calderon's house was on 11th St., north of W. Lincoln Ave., close to W. Grant St., and she said yes.

THIRD ATTEMPT CONTACT WITH LORRIE A. CALDERON

On 01/09/15, I called the most recent number for Calderon, but the message stated the person was unavailable, and it did not give an option to leave a voicemail.

CONTACT WITH COLLEEN M. RIORDAN

On 01/10/15, I called Riordan and left a voicemail in which I told her I would like her to come to the station to view a photo lineup as during her initial statement she was unable to identify Calderon by her full name.

On 01/12/15, I called and made contact with Riordan, and she stated she would try to come into the station over the next couple of days to look at the photo line up.

On 01/15/15 at approx. 1830 hrs., Colleen M. Riordan, F/W 11/17/73 (ID'd by WI photo driver's license), came into the station to view a photo array. I assisted Officer Schrandt by showing the photo array (myself and Riordan were present only). It should be noted that I had no prior involvement with this case prior to showing the photo array.

I read Riordan the Instructions for Sequential Photo Arrays verbatim. She stated she understood it, and signed/dated the bottom of the sheet. For each photo I asked, "Is this the woman who physically assaulted you in the dressing room?"

During the photo array, Riordan positively identified the 4th photo in the series, labeled #10 (Lorrie A. Calderon, F/W 05/25/70) as the offender. I ultimately placed the array on property. She said she knew her, because she had transported her places, they worked together, and they have hung out in the past.

order to hide them from other people. Martinez stated she was having fun with her friends playing pool, so she did not keep constant eye contact with where she placed her purse. Martinez wanted to leave to go dancing at a different tavern so she picked up her purse and left the bar with her friends. Martinez stated it was the first time she ever attended Tap 58.

Martinez stated she got into the vehicle with her friends and she checked for her wallet, aka clutch or wristlet. Martinez stated she was unable to locate her wallet and assumed it was taken from inside of the bar. Martinez stated she walked back into the bar at the same time as other officers were walking in. Martinez attempted to talk to the DJ and the bartender, but she was unable to get cooperation from them. Martinez thought there were cameras inside of the bar to assist with any investigation.

LACK OF CONSENT

Martinez stated she did not give anyone consent to enter her purse and steal her wallet.

STOLEN PROPERTY

Martinez stated the following items were in her wallet: social security cards for herself and two sons Jaciel A. Noguera-Martinez and Jorynel C. Noguera-Martinez, health insurance cards, driver's license, debit card, child support card, her friend's food stamp card, the keycard to her child's daycare, printed out bank information, and approximately $90 in cash.

I placed all stolen items on property using WAPD Property #15-000229

CONTACT AT BAR

On 1/11/15 at approximately 0036hrs I spoke with Mary Jo Burbach, owner of the business. Burbach stated she has CCTV footage that works but it does not record. Burbach stated it has not worked in several weeks. Burbach stated she had knowledge of the theft from Martinez' purse from the night. Burbach stated her employee, Nickie, advised her that an intoxicated female was escorted out of the business by WAPD after returning to the bar requesting officers to search people inside for the theft. Burbach stated she did not locate any wallets at the bar overnight and has no knowledge of any theft or if anyone did steal the wallet.

CASE DISPOSITION

As of 1/11/15 at 0430hrs I have no suspects, evidence or follow up for this case.

hat and a black ski mask. David stated the handgun the heavy set black male pointed at Mary was blocky in appearance and had an extended magazine. David believed the gun to be an Uzi based on the shape, but also believed the gun to be fake because the finish did not look real.

David said the heavy set black male yelled, "Open your till or I'll shoot you!" and similar statements numerous times at Mary. David stated he stood up from his seat at the bar and this male pointed the gun at him, yelling, "Sit down or I'll shoot you!" David said he replied, "Go ahead and shoot me."

David stated he followed the males after they ran out. David observed the two run north on N 58 St on the east sidewalk. The two cut east just north of the garage to 1656 S 58 St and ran to the north/south alley behind this residence. David believed the males ran north in this alley from here. He did not see them enter a vehicle or house.

David said the males did not obtain anything from anyone and proceeded to leave the bar. David said there were no shots fired and there were no injuries. According to David the entire incident lasted about twenty to thirty seconds, and he did not give anyone permission to point a firearm at him. David did not think he would be able to identify the offenders again given their masks.

CONTACT WITH SHANE LANCOUR - WITNESS

I spoke to Shane P Lancour (M/W 02/13/74) inside the tavern. Lancour said he had been sitting at the bar when the incident occurred. Lancour said two black males with a gun entered the tavern and yelled at everyone. Lancour could not describe the males or the incident in detail and told me, "The whole thing was a joke." When I asked Lancour what he meant he was unwilling to elaborate. Lancour appeared to have consumed alcohol.

K9 TRACK

Officer J. Cerqua and his K9 conducted a K9 track starting in the 1600blk of S 58 St. The track ended in the alley behind 1656 S 58 St. See Officer J. Cerqua's supplement for further information.

MWAR

Dispatch sent a teletype to MWAR region agencies at 2359hrs with information on the offenders. The teletype is attached to this report.

Officers had established a perimeter but were unable to find the offenders. Mary advised the surveillance video for the tavern was a live feed and was not

NARRATIVE

Officer Schneider Reports:

INITIAL CALL FOR SERVICE

On 01/18/2015 at 0154hrs, Officers responded to 7731 W Becher St, Quenchers, for a report of a trouble call in regards to a group of people fighting in the bar. Prior to arriving on scene WAPD dispatch advised that one of the callers, Terry Hazard M/W 02/19/1987, informed dispatch that he was hiding in the basement armed with a knife. Officers arrived on scene and made contact with Hazard and Steven P. Berninger M/W 10/09/1981 who where standing outside the bar. I made contact with Berninger.

OFFICER OBSERVATIONS

Berninger had a small laceration to the top of his forehead. The right side of his face was swollen and was starting to turn black and blue. Based on Berninger bleeding from the head, I called WAFD to the scene to medically clear him.

CONTACT WITH TERRY HAZARD - OFFENDER

See Officer Carlson's supplement for details.

CONTACT WITH BERNINGER - OFFENDER

I asked Berninger what happened and he informed me that he was "jumped" in the bar. I asked Berninger how many people where involved and he stated, "I don't know." I asked him if he could describe the person who struck him and he stated, "No I was hit multiple times by multiple people." I Berninger how the fight started and he said, "A group of guys said, 'What are you looking at?'" Berninger said the males started hitting him and he hit the floor. Berninger fled from the bar and hid across the street until police arrived.

Hittman stated she was sitting at the bar when a fight broke out. She said she did not see how the fight started but heard that someone ran into the basement. Hittman said she went into the basement in an attempt to diffuse the situation. Hittman also heard the male was armed with a knife. Prior to going downstairs, she announced herself, and stated, "Don't do anything, I just want to talk." She asked the male, who was later identified as Hazard, to trust her.

Hittman asked Hazard what he wanted and he told her he wanted everyone out. As she walked downstairs, Hazard grabbed her from behind and held a knife to her throat. She asked him again what he wanted and he stated, "Tell them to leave." Hittman told Hazard that she would tell everyone to leave. She asked him to calm down and let her go. She stated after approximately 30 seconds, he let her go and she went upstairs and kicked everyone out.

Hittman stated she went back to the top of the stairs and informed Hazard that everyone involved left and it was ok for him to come out. Hittman asked Hazard to give her the knife in which he refused. Hittman stated Hazard came up from the basement and walked outside, just as police arrived on scene. I asked Hittman if she works at Quencher's and she stated no. I asked her if Hazard cut her as he held the knife to her throat and she said no. She advised me she could feel the blade of the knife against her neck.

LACK OF CONSENT

Karri Hittman did not give Hazard consent to hold a knife to her throat and make her fear for her safety.

NARRATIVE

STATEMENT-SHARON ALEXANDER

On 01/30/15 at 1332 hours, I conducted a tavern check at Gussler's, 7408 W Walker St. I made contact with bartender Sharon Alexander and asked to see current liquor license. The one displayed in the tavern had expired 06-30-14. Sharon contacted the owner Eric Millard, because she could not find the current license.

STATEMENT-ERIC MILLARD

I spoke to Eric over the phone. He indicated that he applied for the license but had not picked the license up from City Hall.

CITY HALL FOLLOW UP

I made contact with City Clerk Ann Neff, who indicated that Eric had applied for liquor license on September 11, 2014. The liquor license was not approved as Eric had not fulfilled the requirements to obtain the license.

I advised Sharon to close the business until license can be obtained.

CASE DISPOSITION

On 02/02/15, Per Lt. Johnson, Eric Millard fulfilled all requirements and was given the Class B liquor license and can remain open. No further police action necessary. A tavern report was also completed.

Cpl. McNally reports... On 01-31-15 at 0011 hrs, officers responded to the Fifty Seven Bar, 5632 W. Burnham St. regarding an anonymous complaint of patrons smoking inside the tavern. On arrival, I observed a female, later identified as Rochelle M. Peters (f/w, 10-10-72) sitting at the bar smoking a cigarette. Peters was identified by WI DL. She was found to have a warrant with New Berlin PD. Officer Kaye transported her to the WAPD for the booking process. Peters was mugged/printed and booked under WAPD booking #15-000446. She was unable to post bail. New Berlin PD faxed over a PR bond. Peters signed the PR bond and was released. The PR bond was faxed and mailed back to New Berlin PD. I also made contact with the bartender, Sonya R. Bautista (f/w, 08-07-77, Bartender's License #15-204). She was identified by WI DL. Bautista was behind the bar, approximately five feet away from Peters while Peters was smoking. Bautista admitted that she knew smoking inside the tavern was illegal, but stated she was in the bathroom and did not know that Peters was smoking. A local contact search revealed Bautista had not previously been warned for patrons smoking inside the tavern. Both Peters and Bautista were issued verbal warnings. Officer Kaye obtained the Liquor License #14-2071. The current liquor license was not posted.
