Officers did not smell any odor of marijuana while inside of the business and did not observe any problems inside of the bar. Nicole was advised to continue to contact WAPD if there are further issues. Nicole advised she attempted to contact the owner on multiple occasions regarding tobacco smoke however he never responded. I observed numerous people in Flappers after closing time (0200 AM). There was one pitcher and one bottle of beer still on the bar from where the group was walking away. The on duty bartender, Melissa K Rumsey (F/W [REDACTED]), said she had trouble getting them to leave, someone's ride had not come yet and they had been waiting in the bar, and the clock in the tavern was off. I advised Rumsey it was her responsibility to ensure all people were out and all drinks were not available for consumption by tavern closing time. Rumsey had a valid West Allis bartender's license (#18179 issued 08/03/16) and the tavern's liquor license was displayed (#16-797). Tavern violation report completed.
