Yes

The Property Owner assumes primary liability for damages to person or property by reason of the granting of the privilege.*

The Property Owner is obligated to remove an obstruction or excavation upon 10 days' notice by The City and waives the right to contest in any manner the validity of this privilege or the amount of compensation charged.*

The City may require the Property Owner to file a bond that does not exceed $10,000 that secures the performance of the conditions of the privilege imposed by law and/or the common council.*

The Property Owner is not entitled to damages for removal of an obstruction or excavation, and if the Property Owner does not remove the obstruction or excavation upon due notice, it shall be removed at the Property Owner's expense and any balance remaining will be imposed upon the property as a special charge.*
