Billy Lee Morford did all the time the judge ordered, but our government doesn't think child abuse is a serious crime. Maybe because killing a child who is about to be born is OK. Killing a child is wrong, whether it is 8 months old or 5 weeks.

Our current Wisconsin Governor, James Doyle, while he was the Wisconsin Attorney General, passed street laws against pro-lifers, but gave easy guidelines to judges for sexual assaults of children. Then he passed the 980 law which keeps Morford in jail after he has completed every minute of the time the judge ordered him to do.

We live in a nation that is supposed to have just laws, so why is Morford still in jail at a home on North 51st Street that he did not ask to be in? His neighbors don't want him there. Is this not discrimination? He is not wanted in West Allis or Oak Creek. More discrimination! Christians should hang their heads in shame.

Bill has said he wants to live in the country away from his false imprisonment. He has repented of his crimes and has turned to Jesus for help. He has asked Robert Braun, President of the C.C.L.U., to be his mentor, and drive him to medical help he needs, but his probation officer will not give permission. The judge who passed the light sentences belongs in jail, along with Governor Doyle who passed the law to keep a man in jail after he completed his time.

Dear Common Council Members:

On Saturday September 18, 2004 between the hours of 8:00 A.M. to 3:00 P.M. we of the West Allis Knights of Columbus will be hosting a charity Old Car & Truck Show on our parking lot located at 1800 South 92nd Street.

In addition to hosting the show we will be selling sandwiches and liquid refreshments all of which will be sold and dispensed inside our current banquet facility. This show will be open to the general public and we are coordinating with our neighbor Chr Hansen Inc. to utilize their parking lot for parking purposes for spectators.

Proceeds from this event will once again be utilized toward our mission of providing help to others in the community who are in need. We are very proud of the fact that each year for the past 25 years we have been able to donate a minimum of $20,000.00 per year to those in need. Events such as the one planned for September 18th will assure that our charitable works of mercy can continue.

We would be very pleased to welcome any and all of you to join us at this event.

Sincerely,

West Allis Knights of Columbus
