CASE SYNOPSIS

PO Johnson reports...

On 02/19/03, between 1837 and 22200 hrs., "Tiffany", a 17 year old West Allis resident, assisted me in a Tavern Compliance Check. Tiffany entered and attempted to purchase alcohol at fifteen west-end West Allis taverns. She attempted to purchase a Miller Lite beer without identification. Of the 15 taverns entered, Tiffany was able to purchase alcohol at eight of the taverns without being asked for identification. At each of the eight offending taverns, the bartender that sold the alcohol to Tiffany was cited, along with the tavern's license holder. In cases where the bartender was also the license holder, only 1 citation was issued. All citations were mailed at a later date.

COMPLIANCE CHECK PROCEDURE

Before beginning the compliance check, Tiffany was photographed, asked to empty her pockets (excluding money needed), and given a detailed and complete set of instructions. Tiffany was given money provided by the department and was advised to enter each tavern and attempt to purchase a Miller Lite beer. Tiffany was advised that if the bartender requested identification, she was to immediately exit the tavern.

I was in plain clothes and entered each tavern with Tiffany. I viewed each transaction as it was conducted. Tiffany remained in my view at all times, with each transaction being entirely witnessed by me. Upon receiving the alcohol, Tiffany paid for it immediately. She was then advised to enter the women's bathroom area and dispose of some of the beer before exiting the bathroom. While Tiffany was in the bathroom, I asked the bartender his/her first name. Tiffany would come back to the bar, set her beer on it and we would exit the tavern. At all the taverns, we walked in together and sat next to each other. I did not order anything to drink.
