Short Narrative

Belli reports: Officers responded to Buffalo Wild Wings for a report of two intoxicated males who were refusing to leave the establishment. They left before officers arrival. I spoke to the manager Thomas A. Krueger who said the waitress served each man five 20 oz beers with their meal and then refused to sell them anymore because the men were starting to ask the female wait staff to come over by them and making the wait staff feel uncomfortable. The two men then went to the bar and each had another 20 oz beer because the bartender didn't know the wait staff had already quit serving them. Krueger cut them off again. The men became irate at being cut off and one started yelling and swearing at Krueger. They left shortly after the police were called. Krueger did not want officers to conduct any follow up.
