E. CITIZEN PARTICIPATION

Richard Povilka, 807 S. 90 St., commented on the Minutes format.

Emily Eineichner, 7231 W. Greenfield Ave., asked for volunteers for the West Allis A la Carte.

Tracy Stefanski, 1982 S. 75 St, addressed the ordinance before the Advisory Committee and it is his opinion that it violates his rights as a taxpayer, doesn't allow his district to be represented, and the timing was suspect.

David Stauffacher, 1931 S. 69 St. commented on the importance of citizenship and to participate in the community and government. Mr. Stauffacher commented on the proposed ordinance before the Advisory Committee because there is no provisions on limiting the meetings, compromises ability to represent constituents, questions of due process, and denies citizens proper representation.

Ryan Roth, 3891 S. 91 St., voiced his opposition for the proposed ordinance.

Jamie Donald, 809 S. 120 St., is opposed to the proposed ordinance because it does not serve the residents of West Allis.

Suzette Grisham, owner of Hair 4 You, LLC, located at 7008 W. National Ave., commented on Expert Automotive and asked that this building be demolished. Ms. Grisham commented on the alderpersons are voted in and each one represents their constituents, and she is concerned with the way this matter was handled. Ms. Grishman is opposed to the ordinance because it is keeping a member out of meetings, addressed representation, and announced that she is closing her business in West Allis.

Noah Leigh, 7026 W. Rogers St., agrees with everything that was said tonight and felt that the introduction of this ordinance was suspect, language should be changed, and was concerned with the issues regarding Expert Automotive.

Patricia Concha, 1028 S. 75 St. commented on rehabilitation assistance. Ms. Concha expressed her disapproval.
