Re: 2nd Quarter Funding for Educational Access
Date: 8/26/03

The quantity and variety of programming continues to increase on the Educational Access Channel. Programs ranged from those featuring interviews with concentration camp survivors and war veterans to investigative journal reports to a spoof of American Idol. The quantity of programming has resulted in purchasing additional playback equipment.

The studio at Parkway School is complete and is used for school district news updates produced by high school students. Intern Ryan Young, Nathan Hale Senior, improved the look of the Channel's Bulletin Board. He will be attending UW-Milwaukee in the fall majoring video broadcast production/mass communications. Ryan will also be retained as an assistant next year.

The School District is keeping on track with their goals and objectives for 2003, and I recommend 2nd quarter funding for the School District's Educational Access Channel.

Respectfully submitted,

Jerold E. Musial
