Dear Council Members:

I am herewith reappointing Ms. Patricia Wikenhauser as a member of the West Allis Commission on Aging. Her three-year term will expire on November 1, 2018.

Ms. Wikenhauser has lived in West Allis for 25 years, and she and her husband Charles reside at 12017 West Hayes. They are the parents of three grown daughters, and five grandchildren. She attended college at Illinois State University – Art Education, Aquinas College – Liturgical Music, and Mount Mary College – Social Work.

Ms. Wikenhauser has worked with the elderly population for 29 years and has been involved in their care in the following ways: Director of Adult Day Care, Long Term Care Facilities Activity Director, Director of Activities for dementia specific Community Based Residential Facilities (CBRF), Marketing and Admissions Director for Residential Care Apartment Complexes (RCAC), CBRF's and Assisted Living. She has been a facilitator of support groups for early stage dementia– families and clients, and started a new position in this field a few years ago. She previously worked for ANEW Health Care Services as a Team Leader and Case Manager responsible for 20 Care Managers and 10 Nurses who provide case management with the Family Care Program in Milwaukee County.

Ms. Wikenhauser is a Board Member and current President of the West Allis Community Improvement Foundation. She has been involved with West Allis Women's Club, Alzheimer's Association, West Allis-West Milwaukee School Board Committees, and the West Allis Community Dinner/Dance Committee.

Your confirmation of this reappointment will be appreciated by the undersigned.

Sincerely,
