To: City of West Allis Common Council
From: Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Colgrove
Subject: New city ordinance or an amendment

Good evening council members and thank you for adding our petition to the agenda tonight, and a specific thank you to Alderman May, the alderman of my district."

First of all I would like to give a little bit of Information about myself:

My name is Stephen Colgrove, I have served my country Honorably for 27 years in the armed services – Navy and Army (Retired). I am also retired from the Milwaukee County House of Correction located in Franklin, WI in law enforcement for 23 years of faithful service(Retired Sergeant):

My wife and I are very law abiding citizens, so please help us with this if you would?

I am standing here today in front of you to "Petition the Common Council" to be able to keep my beloved pet "Piggy". She is not swine as it refers to farm animals or wild pigs. She also has been a large part of our family for 3 and a half years now and there has never been a complaint filed by anyone about her. She is very clean and quiet. She has been spayed and is up to date on her vaccinations. She also has been micro chipped. She has her own health Insurance policy and Piggy has her own bedroom and bed. She also gets along well with our other animals. She is a very intelligent animal and most of the time you would not even know she is around. There has been a very strong bond growing between myself and her. I truly love her very much. I believe that if she is made to leave our home, she will suffer emotionally to the point where she could die! All of our other family members have grown attached to Piggy. My youngest granddaughter Nevia especially. Every time she comes to our house she is so excited to see Piggy she runs over to her and gives her a kisses saying piggy, piggy! Piggy is a domesticated "Vietnam Pot Belly pig pet" "She is not swine which refers to farm animal pig. We need a new ordnance written that address this particular animal situation or at least amend the city swine ordnance so that we may keep her. Also for your knowledge we have gathered a large number of signatures in the immediate neighborhood and everybody I spoke with agrees that we should be able to keep her and support allowing pot-bellied pigs as pets in West Allis.

So in closing I'm requesting that the board take this issue under consideration and please do the right thing and let me keep my pig! We love her and we love living in West Allis.

Thank You for time in this matter. Sincerely, Stephen Colgrove.

They are no farm pigs they do not get 600-700 lbs, they are neat and they are clean and they eat healthy food. They have incredible feelings and they miss their family when they are separated.  Municipalities are going to have to begin to accept that Potbellied Pigs can be excellent pets. There is no reason to exclude them as indoor pets. It is really no different than if someone has a giant bird or pet snake inside their house. It's really nobody's business, as long as the pet is cared for.

Jan I., MI Contrary to common perception, potbellied pigs are very clean, can be potty trained/house broken, and are very very safe to have around children. There's an unwarranted perception that makes people think they ought to have the right to choose the type of pet a person can/cannot have. As long as it is legal [which it is, except under any apartment and/or housing rental agreement - typically those allow only cats or small dogs]. Let Piggy stay home. Many actors and other regular folks have pigs as house pets -- and yes, they are very happy [pig and their human caregivers].	Jun 23, 15:36	# 525

Lori Driggers, TX I have rescued and fostered potbellied pigs for 17 years and am amazed at the bonds formed between a family and their pet pig. Most zoning regulations are outdated and unrealistic when it comes to these incredibly intelligent pets. I was thrilled when my town revised it's ordinances and specifically listed potbellied pigs as 'household pets'.	Jun 24, 12:58	# 711
