The following is a summary of reported incidents involving licensed businesses, including reported tavern violations and calls for police service during the month of January 2017

Incident reports:

Case #17-000027 // 01 January 2017 at 0407hrs. // One More – 7534 W. Beloit Rd. // NO VIOLATION

Caller was victim in incident – Eric Olson

On 01/01/17 at 0407 hours, officers were dispatched to 7534 W. Beloit Road to investigate a fight at the above location where a firearm was pointed and threats were made to the victim and his friends. The investigation revealed the firearm was never pointed at the victim, however the suspect did show the firearm and threaten the victim. All the victims in this case were extremely uncooperative with police on scene, and refused to give detailed statements regarding this incident. There are no known suspects regarding this incident.

Case #17-000028 // 01 January 2017 at 0421hrs. // Flappers – 7527 W. Becher St. // NO VIOLATION

Caller was bartender – Angela Schroeder

On 01/01/17 at 0421 hours, Flappers bartender Angela A. Schroeder, [REDACTED], called the police to report a fight at the bar. Schroeder said two male subjects had been fighting inside the bar and were no fighting outside the bar. The two male subjects were located and identified. The one who was deemed to be the instigator was arrested for municipal offenses of disorderly conduct and resisting an officer.

Case #17-000030 // 01 January 2017 at 0439hrs. // 6500 Bar – 6500 W. Greenfield Ave. // NO VIOLATION

Callers: Patron inside of the tavern appears to have called to report incident.
Montal Hinton (owner) called to clear loiterers from front of tavern 15-20 minutes later

On 01/01/17, officers responded to The 6500 Bar, located at 6500 W Greenfield Ave, for a report of a group of men fighting outside and one waving a gun in the air. Although nearly everyone in the tavern stated there was no incident, two witnesses came forward to report they personally observed the incident. The group of men were observed leaving the area in a gray minivan and a black, possibly BMW, sedan.

Case #17-000601 // 06 January 2017 at 0016hrs. // Braun's Power House – 7100 W. National Ave. NO VIOLATION

Caller was bartender – Alyssa Mielke

On 01/06/17 at approx. 0016hrs., officers responded to Braun's Power House, 7100 W. National Ave. for a disorderly conduct. Employees reported a male party, later identified as Garrett M. Wilson [REDACTED] was asked to leave after playing with a pocket knife inside the bar. Shortly after leaving, Garrett called the bar and threatened to kill employees and patrons. Officers located Garrett at his residence and placed him under arrest for Disorderly Conduct. Garrett was issued a municipal citation for Disorderly Conduct and released. Municipal court date set for 02/13/17 at 0830hrs.

Case #17-001769 // 15 January 2017 at 1058hrs. // Rockstar Saloon – 5826 W. Burnham St. NO VIOLATION

Caller: Appears to be bartender or employee

Solie reports....CHAPTER 51 REFERRAL...On 01/15/17, I responded to Rock Star Saloon for an unresponsive male party. An unresponsive male was located inside the bar, and WAFD personnel had to use Narcan to revive him. The male became combative with WAFD after he was revived, and officers had to assist to keep him under control. The male was transported to Aurora West Allis Medical Center, and once there, the male stated he planned on killing himself by slitting his wrists once he was released. He wanted to receive treatment for his suicidal thoughts. Arrangements were made with Aurora staff to provide mental health treatment for the individual.

Case #17-002152 // 18 January 2017 at 1422hrs. // Harry O's Second Base – 6743 W. Lincoln Ave. NO VIOLATION

Caller was victim of robbery – Steven Van Laanen

ARMED ROBBERY: On 01/18/2017 at 1422hrs, I responded to 6743 W Lincoln Ave for a report of a armed robbery. I arrived on scene and made contact with the victim Steven K. Van Laanen [REDACTED]. Steven was sitting in his vehicle behind Harry O's waiting for the business to open so he could collect money from the gaming machines. Steven was approached on foot by a male black, approximately 18-20 years of age, medium build, 5'05, wearing black sweat pants, black hooded sweatshirt and black knit hat. The male displayed a black firearm and demanded money from Steven. Steven gave the male all his money approximately $1500 and the male fled west through the alley. It is unknown which direction the male took on S. 68 St. Unknown if a vehicle was involved.

Case #17-003258 // 26 January 2017 at 0158hrs. // Retro Bar – 6827 W. National Ave. (Formerly G.R.'s National Pub)

Caller was owner of tavern – Nancy Zieroth (Records show Brian Teclaw as owner.) The victim did not call police.

Officer Said reports: POINTING AND AIMING FIREARM... On 1-26-17 at approx. 0158 hrs, I responded to the GR's Pub (Newly named Retro PUB) 6827 W National Ave for a report of a male with a gun that threatened patrons who left the bar. Investigation revealed the victims were leaving the tavern and walking to their vehicle in the 1600 blk of S 69 St when they observed a male with a gun approach them on S 69 St. The male appeared to come from the north side of W National Ave and was described as a male/white or Hispanic in his 20's or 30's; between 5'08-5'10, approx. 180 lbs, wearing a hoody with a dark jacket over it that had buttons down the front, a baseball cap and holding a smaller sized semi-automatic pistol that is silver. The male pointed the gun at the female victim as she was outside her vehicle and continued to point it at her as she entered and started the vehicle and drove away with the male pointing the gun at her through the front passenger window. The female victim stated that she believed he said something to her, but she was not sure of what it was due to the stress of the situation. The male left in an unknown direction. The area was checked and no one found matching this description.

CALLS FOR SERVICE THAT DID NOT RESULT IN A REPORT/CASE
