CALL #20-025037// 15 July 2020 at 2037hrs//Stallywood 6827 W. National Ave

Caller: Donna Catalano

Officer Behnke reports: Disorderly Conduct

On 07/15/20 at 2037 hours, Donna R. Catalano (F/W [REDACTED]) called to report a disturbance between her boyfriend, Timothy A. Davey (M/W [REDACTED]) and Robert L. Anderson (M/W [REDACTED]) while at Stallywood, located at 6827 W. National Ave. Investigation revealed Davey and Catalano brought their dog to Stallywood upon noticing the owner had dogs loose in the bar. Davey claimed Anderson's dog mounted his dog at which time Davey responded by kneeling and punching Anderson's dog "Charlie", a 4 YOA male brindle boxer. Davey claimed Anderson threatened to kill him and allegedly "accosted" him however there were no marks or injuries. Video surveillance ultimately showed Davey kneeling then slapping "Charlie", then picking up his dog to separate it. Anderson was advised by patrons in the bar that Davey struck his dog and is observed yelling at Davey to leave. Davey and Catalano eventually left the bar without incident. There was no physical contact between anyone at the bar and video surveillance showed Davey exaggerated or was untruthful with his statement. Davey was determined to be the aggressor however there were no complainants from the tavern against Davey. Anderson's living quarters are separated by a sliding door of the bar and was advised to keep his dogs inside of his residence. Anderson was cooperative and returned the dogs to his residence.
