My son's car, which I am on the title, was towed erroneously. This has resulted in a lot of inconvenience but also it cost a towing fee of $94.95. I am requesting a reimbursement of these fees. The car was towed on 12-17-2020 prior to 10 am under the direction of Sgt. Hold. The day prior Sgt. Fabuski provided my son a warning that we had 72 hours to move the car. Arrangements were made after work on 12-17-2020 to have the car moved. Please see the attached letter from Sgt. Fabuski that provided us a timeline to have the car moved by 12-19-2020 by 12:12 pm

① it would be towed.

It is apparent that there was miscommunication between the two officers within the department. Sgt. Bold had the vehicle towed on 12.17.2020 by M+S Towing. Please see attached letter.

We were working in good faith with the information that was provided to us on 12.16.2020. As a result, it is our belief that we shouldn't have encountered all the maintenance and the towing expense.

Please see attached transaction from M+S Towing Inc for $94.95.
