Dear Mayor Bell:

Re: Pressed Steel Tank Co., Inc.

On December 8, 2005, you were issued a notice advising of Pressed Steel Tank, Inc.'s intention to permanently layoff employees on February 17, 2006 or any date during the 14-day period thereafter. That notice included a list of the job titles of positions to be affected and the number of affected employees in each such job classification. We are giving you notice as of this date that, due to operational requirements, the termination date of the 24 employees holding the job positions listed in the attachment to this letter has been changed. We anticipate that the new date of termination for these 24 employees will be March 10, 2006 or any date during the 14-day period thereafter. Employees in the other positions listed in the attachment to our December 8, 2005 notice to you were terminated within the original 14-day period specified in that notice. On or shortly after the date of termination of the employees listed in the attachment to this letter, we anticipate that Pressed Steel's entire operations and facility located at 1445 South 66th Street, West Allis, Wisconsin, 53214-4937 will be permanently closed.

In addition, we anticipate that, on March 10, 2006 or any date during the 14-day period thereafter, health care benefit coverage for Pressed Steel's employees, retirees and dependents, including surviving covered dependents of employees and retired employees, will end. The discontinuation of Pressed Steel's health insurance plans will also mean that there will be no ability to participate in the plans under COBRA following the date of discontinuation.

The information provided in this letter is based upon the best information available to Pressed Steel at this time. This letter is provided pursuant to state and federal laws which encourage employers who are not required to comply with the plant closing notice statutes to nonetheless provide such notice, and should not be construed as an admission of coverage under 29 U.S.C. § 2101 et seq. or Wis. Stat. § 109.07 or § 109.075.
