On January 9th, 2019, the Plaintiff

Milwaukee County Court house for Case NO. 17CF-5081 When Detectives
from the West Allis Police Dept.
placed him under arrest for an investigation. The Plaintiff was then transported to the West Allis Police Dept. in the city of West Allis, WI.
The Plaintiff (Dexter Johnson) was held in custody for almost 6 days, never taken to court, and never informed of any charges against him. The Milwaukee County District Attorney's office never filed any charges.

The arrest was illegal in violation of the Plaintiff's constitutional rights of the U.S. Constitution (Civil Rights). While in custody, the West Allis Police obtained and executed a search warrant at the Plaintiff's home at 8026 W. Appleton Ave #1. The warrant alleged the Police were looking for fruits pertaining to case no. 16CF-1674. Absolutely no new information was included in the state's warrant affidavit. The information was stale and without any new information. The items taken from the house in 2019 can have no possible currency or relevance to incidents from so long ago and with this case having been pending since 2016, the search warrant violated the defendant's rights and all fruits should be suppressed. The Plaintiff asserts, the defendant, Lori Belli, had no probable cause to conduct a search of his home, nor did the West Allis Police have any probable cause to arrest him.

This was a "False Imprisonment" and an unlawful arrest. This arrest caused the Plaintiff, Dexter Johnson, to lose his job at ABM Inc in Milwaukee, WI. And he suffered "Emotional Distress and Mental Anguish". This false arrest and detention and wrongful illegal search was in violation of my Constitutional rights, my 1st, 2nd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 8th and 14th Amend. of the U.S. Const. My civil rights were violated, which is my freedom rights and the right to pursue happiness. These rights are also guaranteed by article I, sections 1, 3, 6, 7, 8, and 11 of the Wisconsin constitution.

I am suing for a violation of federal law under 28 U.S.C. § 1331.
