

October 4, 2005

Honorable Members of the
West Allis Common Council
City Hall
West Allis, Wisconsin

Dear Council Members:

Members of the West Allis Beautification Committee and I have selected various homeowners within the City of West Allis as the winners of the Best Porches of West Allis program. This program recognizes and awards homeowners who decorate their porches in a manner that maintains and beautifies the environment of our City.

It is my pleasure to announce these winners of the 2005 Best Porches of West Allis in the following categories:

Most Patriotic – Elizabeth Rimmel, 2541 S. 76 St.

Most Inviting – Gerald and Jane Corbett, 2374 S. 65 St.

Most Distinctive – Laura Apkarian, 804 S. 112 St.

Most Homey – Susan Karass, 1204 S. 72 St.

Most Colorful – Becher Apartments – Esther Komasa, Manager, with Bob and Nick

Most Cozy – Andrew and Valarie Medved, 9612 W. Lincoln Ave.

The winners will be recognized for their special efforts at the October 4, 2005 Common Council meeting and presented with a poster of the Best Porches of West Allis, which includes their winning porch.

Sincerely,

Jeannette Bell,
Mayor

JB:jfw
MYR\CORR\BESTPORCHES.CC LTR