altercation had ended and the parties were separated. I entered the tavern and made contact with the bartender who I identified by WI DL as Erin M Bartes.

On Scene Statement of Erin M Bartes F/W 11/17/74:

Bartes stated she was bartending alone at the time of the incident and did not know how it started. Bartes said she observed two parties arguing in the south west corner of the tavern near the window. Bartes explained she was not sure what started the argument but said it involved a M/W in a blue tank top (Later identified as Glenn M Carguillo) and a large M/W (Later identified as Robin R Carufel M/W 09/07/55).

Bartes explained Carguillo had been drinking at the bar with another male and they had been there for a few hours. Bartes stated at one point her attention was directed to the S/W corner of the bar as Carguillo was involved in a verbal argument with Carufel. Bartes could not hear what the argument was about, but they appeared to settle it. Bartes said Carguillo and Carufel continued to drink in the same vicinity and there were no problems for a while.

Bartes said she again heard an argument and looked over to see Carguillo and Carufel arguing. Bartes stated the argument became heated and several parties stepped in to break them up. Bartes explained the next thing she saw was Carguillo throw a glass into the crowd and it smashed near the front door. Bartes said Carguillo jumped on top of the bar and continued yelling. Bartes could not remember specifically what was being yelled. Bartes stated when Carguillo jumped on top of the bar several drinks were spilled and knocked over.

Bartes explained that Carguillo then jumped behind the bar and grabbed a bottle of Amaretto off of the rail. Bartes stated Carguillo grabbed the bottle by the pouring end and raised it over his shoulder like he was going to hit someone. Bartes then demonstrated and showed me the specific bottle Carguillo grabbed. Bartes said she pulled the bottle from Carguillo's hand at which time he turned around and shoved her. Bartes stated that Carguillo shoved her several times as he was forcing his way to the side door. At the time of the shoving Carguillo was behind the bar where the alcohol and money are kept. Carguillo did not have permission to be behind the bar. Bartes explained she was able to get Carguillo out of the bar via the south door. Once outside the door Bartes observed Carguillo arm himself with a push broom. Bartes said she locked the door so Carguillo could not come back in and cause further problems. Bartes did not give Carguillo to shove her or jump behind the bar.

Arrest/Transport:

Based on the statements obtained on scene it was determined Carguillo would be taken into custody for throwing the glass and shoving Bartes. I handcuffed Carguillo, the handcuffs were safety locked and checked for proper fit. Carguillo

Mirandized Statement of Glenn M Carguillo M/W 05/26/70:

On 08/03/14 at 0337hrs I read Carguillo his Miranda warning in interview room B of the WAPD booking area. I recorded this statement using digital recorder P18, digital media card P18-1. The following is a synopsis of the statement:

Carguillo said that he had been at the bar drinking with friends. Carguillo stated he had 1 beer earlier in the day and approx. 3 at the bar. Carguillo said he was involved in an altercation with a male at the bar and attempted to shake his hand prior to leaving. Carguillo stated that the man came at him in an "aggressive" manner and he became scared. Carguillo said he was in fear for his safety when this happened and he backed away.

Carguillo explained he back away from the individual and got on top of the bar. Carguillo said he threw a pint glass at the individual as he was in fear for his life. Carguillo did not know where the glass landed or if it broke. Carguillo stated he jumped on top of the bar because he was in fear for his safety. Carguillo admitted to jumping behind the bar and pushing the bartender to get out of the bar. Carguillo stated he was trying to leave because he was in fear for his safety.

Carguillo explained he was able to leave the bar via the side exit. Carguillo said once outside of the bar he armed himself with a broom because he was in fear for his safety. Carguillo wanted to add he was in fear for his life and defended himself. I concluded the interview at 0339hrs. The media card was turned into the CO.

Case Dispo:

Carguillo was arrested and transported to WAPD for disorderly conduct. I issued Carguillo a municipal citation for DC and provided a 09/08/14 municipal court date. Carguillo was released to the lobby and I called a cab for him.

Officer Otto reports:

INITIAL RESPONSE

On 8/3/14, at approx. 0228hrs, Officers responded to 1430 S. 81st St. for the report of 4-6 people fighting.

STATEMENT BY GLENN M. CARGUILLO-OFFENDER

While on scene, I made contact with Glenn M. Carguillo, (m/w, 5/26/70) who was involved in the altercation that took place. Glenn stated he was in the bar having a good time with his brother-in-law when a male party, later identified as Robin R. Carufel, (m/u, 9/7/55), was talking to him. I asked Glenn what they were talking about and he said he didn't know. I asked him if he could remember anything that was said between the two and he said, "no".

As Glenn was trying to leave and walking by Robin, and out of nowhere, Robin took a swing at Glenn. Glenn was able to duck out of the way and throw his beer glass at Robin. Glenn then was able to jump onto the bar in order to get away from Robin. Glenn then thinks Robin punched his brother-in-law in the face, but did not witness this.

I asked Glenn if at any time he was behind the bar and he stated he wasn't. Officers explained to Glenn that the bartender observed him behind the bar and he then changed his answer to "yes". Officers then asked him if at anytime he picked up a liquor bottle and held it up in a threatening manner. Glenn avoided answering the question by referring back to when he threw the beer glass at Robin.

Glenn later admitted to picking up the bottle a bottle of Amaretto and throwing it at Robin in self defense.

During my interaction with Glenn, he was unsteady on his feet, he had a strong odor of intoxicants emitting from his breath, and was slurring his words. Glenn kept indicating he didn't remember what happened and based on my training and experience as a Police Officer, it was my belief that Glenn was under the influence of intoxicants.

End of Supplemental Report.

NARRATIVE

Sergeant Corwin reports...

WITNESS STATEMENT - STEVEN SATTLER

At the tavern, (Paulie's Field Trip - 1430 S. 81 St), I spoke with a male inside the tavern that had witnessed the incident. He identified himself as Steven L. Sattler, M/W, 09/20/79, 2746 S. 76 St, West Allis, WI 53219, cell #414-708-5132). Sattler provided the following statement.

Sattler was inside the tavern at the time of the incident. He stated that a male, (identified as Robin R. Carufel, M/I, 09/07/55) and another male, (identified as Glenn M. Carguillo, M/W, 05/26/70), became involved in an argument inside the bar near the main entrance. This argument led to the males pushing each other, which led to Glenn throwing a beer glass at Robin. The glass missed Robin, struck the wall near the entrance door and shattered. Steven got between the two males and tried to separate them. At about this time, Glenn jumped up onto and then over the bar to the other side where the bartender normally stands. After jumping over the bar, Glenn grabbed a liquor bottle from the bar and held it up in a threatening manner. The bartender, (identified as Erin M. Bartes, F/W, 01/1/74), approached Glenn and quickly grabbed the bottle out of Glenn's hand, thus taking it away from him. Glenn then approached the Erin in what appeared to be a threatening manner, before he ended up leaving out the side door. When leaving, Glen or one of his friends picked up some type of wood pole, possibly a broomstick. The side door and the main entrance were then locked to prevent Glenn and his friend from coming back inside.

Steven stated that Robin did not punch Glenn or anyone else, including Glenn's friend. Steven positively identified Glenn on scene. Steven stated that he
