The Honorable Jeannette Bell
7525 West Greenfield Avenue
West Allis, WI 53214

Dear Mayor Bell:

We are hereby giving you notice as of this date that, effective January 15, 2004, or any date during the 14-day period thereafter, we will be engaging in the separation of employees leading to the termination of significant operations at our facility located at 1445 South 66th Street, West Allis, Wisconsin.

We expect that the layoff will be permanent. We presently anticipate that 1 Company employee will be affected by the layoff on January 15, 2004, or on any date during the 14-day period thereafter. At this time, the Company cannot determine the exact date upon which additional terminations (if any) of affected employees will take place. However, in accordance with state and federal plant closing regulations, the Company is providing notice containing the best information available to it at this time. When the exact date of additional terminations, if any, is known, that information will be provided to you.

Attached to this letter is the job title of the position to be affected. The affected employee at the facility is not represented by a union and does not have bumping rights. Employees will be paid all wages due in accordance with applicable law

Additional information concerning this matter can be obtained from John Darling, Vice President Operations at 414-476-0500 at extension 278. We have also sent a copy of this letter to the State Dislocated Worker Unit and the union officials identified above.
