15. That on April 16, 2017 West Allis Police Officers were dispatched to 6500 West Greenfield Avenue, known as the 6500 Bar and Restaurant, regarding several calls for service and reporting shots fired outside the bar. When officers arrived on scene, they observed a large group of adults physically fighting in the street. Officers were able to determine that an unknown male fired at least one shot into the air during the fight and fled the scene. Several subjects were taken into custody regarding the incident.
16. Regarding the April 16th incident, Officer Erin Luedke reported that when she arrived on scene, she observed several people physically fighting in the street. Officer Luedke reported that one subject was swearing, yelling, and throwing empty liquor bottles out of a "party bus" that had been parked at the 6500 Bar and Restaurant. Officer Luedke reported that as she and Officer Kleinfeldt attempted to control the situation, a group of about twenty adults began to approach the officers, ignored commands to stay away, and began to yell and swear at the officers. Officer Luedke reported that the subject that had been throwing bottles from the party bus then exited the bus, and lunged at Officer Luedke with closed fist. Officer Luedke reported that she was forced to use her Oleoresin Capsicum Spray to stop the subjects from advancing any further towards officers.

17. Officer Luedke reported that multiple subjects involved in the fight informed officers that they had been in the 6500 Bar. Teresa Roby informed officers that she had been in The 6500 Bar when the fight broke out near the front entrance. Monique Baldwin admitted that she had a .380 semi-automatic pistol in her purse on the bus. A second firearm was also located in her purse.
18. Officer Ryan McNally reported that he spoke with Lashay Toliver, a bartender at the 6500 Bar and Restaurant regarding the April 16th incident. Lashay Toliver reported that she did not observe any problems inside the bar, but that the fight occurred as everyone was leaving the tavern.
19. Officer McNally also reported recovering one bullet casing in the road in front of the bar which appeared to be from the incident.
20. Officer Adam Schweitzer reported that he spoke with owner of the bar, Tonja Bassett who advised that she did not have working video surveillance at the bar and that the "Common Council" in West Allis had told her she had until May 8 to have working video surveillance.
21. Officer Daniel Foy also had contact with Tonja Bassett who admitted that she was one of the callers and was hosting a birthday party in the bar that evening. Tonja Bassett denied that the fight started in the bar, but stated that people from inside the bar were involved in the fight.
22. Officer Foy reported that he reviewed surveillance video from "Spot Lite" which had captured some of the fight. Office Foy reported that he was able to observe that during the fight, a black male party with dreadlocks was pointing a firearm at another male. A short time later, that male with the dreadlocks uses the handgun to strike a male party in the side of the head during the fight. One male party appeared to be knocked unconscious during the fight. Officer Foy stated that he observed a different male with a firearm running on S. 65th Street with a firearm in his hand.

this complaint in addition to Wis. Stat. Chapter 125, West Allis RMC Chapter 9 and Chapter 7; and which substantially relate to the licensed/permitted activity; is grounds for non-renewal, suspension, or revocation of its 2016-2017 Class "B" Intoxicating Liquor and Class "B" Fermented Malt Beverage License, 2016-2017 Dance Hall License, 2016-2017 Tavern Entertainment License, and 2016-2017 Food permit.
