Re: 3rd Quarter Funding for Educational Access
Date: 10/29/03

The Educational Access Channel was utilized to inform the community of a noteworthy event, that of Barb Johnson being named Wisconsin Teacher of the Year. An announcement was placed on their bulletin board, a news brief and on site interview were done by the Hale Video Club and a reception honoring Mrs. Johnson was videotape for rebroadcast.

Over the summer the district's video team produced baseball games, news briefs and storyteller programs. With school starting again in September there are 12 video clubs with over 100 students participating.

Interim Superintendent Kurt Wachholz is an advocate of Channel 13 and has directed the Information Office to expand its news programming to better explain issues like the new report card format to the community. Sports programming has increased with volleyball and football games being produced. Currently the Information Office is recruiting another district video team to increase programming.

The School District is keeping on track with their goals and objectives for 2003, and I recommend 3rd quarter funding for the School District's Educational Access Channel.

Respectfully submitted,

Please add this communication to the Council Agenda for Nov. 1.

Also I'd like L&H to act on it at recess (Approve)

Thanks Jerry
