ARRIVAL

On 08-30-13 at 0122 hrs, officers responded to GR's National Pub, 6827 W. National Ave, regarding a patron trying to fight everyone inside the tavern and refusing to leave. On arrival, I made contact with the bartender, Sarah M. Reeves, who provided the following statement.

STATEMENT - SARAH M. REEVES (witness)

Reeves stated a male subject wearing a blue t-shirt, blue jeans and sandals, later identified as Aaron M. Jonasen, was inside the tavern causing a disturbance. Reeves did not know why Jonasen was upset, but he was challenging everyone inside the tavern to a fight. Reeves told Jonasen on numerous occasions that he needed to leave the tavern. Jonasen refused to leave and Reeves called 911 to prevent any further problems.

Reeves stated Jonasen was highly intoxicated, but eventually he left the tavern prior to officer arrival. Reeves provided me with her bartender's license #14-264, which was valid. She also provided me with the tavern license certificate #13-001613.

Later on 08-30-13, Jonasen came into the WAPD and spoke with Officer Graf. He stated he never received his copy of the citation. Officer Graf reprinted the citation for Jonasen. At this time, he signed the citation and the PR bond. Officer Graf issued Jonasen his copy of the citation. Both of the court copies were turned into the records bureau.

NARRATIVE

Officer Said reports...

INITIAL OBSERVATIONS

On 08-30-13 at 0122 hrs, Squad 311 responded to the tavern GR's Pub, 6827 W National Ave for a report of a male who would not leave the establishment and a possible fight. Upon arrival I was met by a group of individuals outside the tavern who stated that a male, white with blue jeans, glasses and a red shirt was running westbound from the location and that he was bleeding from above one of his eyes. I began talking with a white male who stated he was helping to get the male out of the bar, this male was identified as Brandon A. Feezor. As I spoke to Feezor officers called out that they were out with a Aaron M. Jonasen (m/w, 1-1-81), the male who ran from the bar.

ON SCENE STATEMENTS OF WITNESS - BRANDON A. FEEZOR (M/W, 10/20/83)

Brandon A. Feezor said he was inside the bar when he saw a Aaron M. Jonasen walk up to a female (unknown name) and kiss her. Feezor said this made the female's boyfriend, Kurt M. Dolan, angry and he approached Jonasen and pushed him to the ground. Feezor said because he is a bouncer at a bar (Mad Dog's Tavern) he felt that he should help and he escorted Jonasen to the other end of the bar where he closed out his tab.

Feezor said he then walked outside with Jonasen and Jonasen said he was going to fight Feezor. Feezor thought he was joking and told him to just leave. At this time Jonasen took off his glasses and placed them on the window ledge. Jonasen lunged at Feezor and Feezor grabbed his arm and pressed him against the window (he showed me a smudge on the window where Jonasen's face was). Feezor said he then let Jonasen go and told him to walk away and leave. Jonasen then lunged at Feezor again and threw a punch at Feezor with his right hand. Feezor described this punch as a "superman" punch, which he said meant Jonasen threw all of his weight behind it. Feezor said he pushed the arm away and pushed Jonasen away from him causing him to fall to the ground. Jonasen said this was when he believed Jonasen sustained the injury, which was bleeding on his face, above his eye.

Feezor had no injuries or blood on his person. I inspected his hands and elbows and saw no signs of injury or anything which would lead one to believe he was involved in an altercation. Feezor stated he had been drinking but I did not detect any slur in his speech or lack of balance. There was a moderate odor of intoxicants on his breath. Feezor also stated that if officers were to watch a video of the incident they would see exactly what he recounted to me on the video.

Officers were not able to make any contact with Dolan while on scene so Feezor called him while on scene. Dolan stated he did not wish to speak to the police concerning this case and he hung up the phone when I tried to speak with him.

Aaron asked Meghan for a kiss and she replied only on the cheek. While posing for the picture with Aaron, he turned and kissed Meghan on the lips. Meghan stated she did not want a kiss from Aaron and became upset because of this. It should be noted, while I was speaking with Meghan, she was very intoxicated. Meghan's speech was very thick and slurred and her eyes were red and glassy. Meghan dropped her cellphone multiple times while I was taking her statement. After Aaron kissed Meghan on the lips, a male inside the bar, later identified as, Brandon A Feezor, M/W, 10/28/83, engaged in a verbal argument with Aaron which continued outside the bar. While outside Aaron charged at Brandon. Brandon was able to push Aaron to the side, which caused him to fall to the sidewalk outside of the bar.
