Attachments: Beloit Road - Audit Results Communication
Beloit Road Senior Apartments AUD 12-31-25 FS Final

Mr. Schloss presented the annual audit report for Beloit Road Senior apartments, conducted by Baker Tilly. This is a clean audit but highlighting ongoing operational losses due to insufficient revenue to cover debt service, with future disposition considerations to be discussed in the next item.

This matter was Discussed.

4. 26-0329 Discussion on the future of Beloit Road Senior Apartments.

Mr. Schloss detailed the upcoming exit of the tax credit investor from Beloit Road Senior Apartments LLC., outlining the transition to sole city ownership, financial implications, valuation, and ongoing afford-ability requirements, with input from Baker Tilly and city departments.

Wayne Clark inquired who is responsible for making sure this particular project continues to remain affordable, and was told that it is truly a community discussion. The goal originally was to preserve the property to ensure it's availability to those 62 yrs and older.

The discussion of possible tear-down was brought up, however the city no longer has painters, electrician, HVAC etc., it hits a need in the community but we need to consider the cost of delivering services for the 103 residents.

This matter was Discussed.

5. 26-0330 Resolution to amend the professional services contract with SB Friedman for up to $25,000 for real estate financial consulting and development agreement analysis.
