      Re: Schedule for In-Person Absentee Voting Period

Dear Mayor Devine and Common Council Members:

Due to the recent ruling by the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals that denied the State's motion to stay Judge Peterson's decision in the One Wisconsin Institute case, I am planning on extending the days and hours for in-person absentee voting for the 2016 Presidential Election in order to better serve the public and the administrative needs of the Clerk's Office. The in-person absentee voting location will continue to be West Allis City Hall. I am anticipating that additional staffing assistance will be provided by other departments, and I will also be utilizing temporary election workers. The minimal cost associated with this period extension will be covered by the Clerk's Office budget.

Please note the following recommended schedule:
