Dear Members of the Common Council:

I am writing to request permission for United Way of Greater Milwaukee to install banners on utility poles during our 2004 Community Campaign, September 8 through December 6, or for as long as you are able to schedule them.

We appreciate your efforts in helping United Way share information about the community campaign with the residents of West Allis. As you well know, United Way funded programs serve nearly 300,000 local people, including West Allis residents.

I am pleased to inform you that United Way will be holding its official kick-off event in West Allis this year, at the Wisconsin State Fair Park. Thank you for considering our request. Please feel free to call me at 414.263.8132 if you have questions or need more information.

Sincerely,

Robyn McGill
 Media and Community Relations Manager
