CITY CLERK

The following is a summary of reported incidents involving licensed businesses, including reported tavern violations and calls for police service during the month of March.

Incident reports:

Case #14-10938, 12/08/2014, 0346 hrs: 9033 W. National Av – J. Beans Pub

On 12/08/2014, Officers responded to the alley behind 5719 W. Rogers St for a report of a man passed out on the ground. Investigation revealed a party had fallen and hit his head and vomited on himself. WAFD was called and responded to the scene. The party passed away. On 01/30/2015, information was received the death may be from over-serving of alcohol at a tavern in West Allis, J. Beans Pub, 9033 W. National Av. An autopsy was conducted and the cause of death was listed as “Anoxic Encephalopathy” due to “Blunt Force Injuries of the Head” and the manner of death was listed as “Accident”. An investigation ensued. When Detectives asked the bar owner who was serving that night, they stated a girl called “J Little”. They would not provide her name, address or telephone number. Detectives were also advised this bartender no longer works at the tavern. The bar owner claimed to have no employment documentation concerning this bartender, nor payroll slips. The owner stated she believed she was a licensed bartender, but she did not have any documentation of the bartending license from the City of West Allis. Detectives were able to determine the identity of the bartender and Monica Schultz, City Hall, advised this party did not have a bartender license issued to her. The other owner then stated it was another party who was bartending and she was a licensed bartender.

Case #15-11552, 03/19/2015, 1520 hrs: 6007 W. Burnham St – Las Palmas

On 03/19/2015, Officers were flagged down at Las Palmas for a report of a Theft. A party was drinking, left a $100 bill on the bar in front of him, and then he fell asleep for a few moments. When he awoke, the money was gone and the person he had been drinking with was also gone.

Case #15-11917, 03/21/2015, 2200 hrs: 900 S. 74 St – Walk Her Inn

On 03/21/2015, Officer responded to Walk Her In for a weapons call involving a male with a knife and numerous males fighting. After a brief search of the area one male party was taken into custody for Disorderly Conduct – While Armed and Obstructing an Officer. Another female party was taken into custody for Disorderly Conduct. Investigation revealed the male party was highly intoxicated and was arguing with people inside the bar when he revealed he just got out of jail, pulled out a knife and told patrons he could take all of them. A patron called the police for help.

Case #15-11931 03/22/2015, 0051 hrs: 837 S. 108 St – Kip’s Inn

On 03/22/2015, Officers responded to Kip’s Inn for a report of a fight in the street, outside the establishment. Three parties were all fighting due to an incident that began inside the bar. All three parties were arrested and cited for Disorderly Conduct and released. The bartender called police for assistance.

Case #15-12267, 03/23/2015, 2244 hrs: 7411 W. Becher St - Barneks

On 03/23/2015, Officers responded to Barneks for a report of a disorderly male. Contact was made with staff and patrons who advised a party was throwing items around inside the bar and making a scene. The party punched the front door multiple times, causing damage after being thrown out of the bar. Officers took custody of the party in his home and arrested him for Disorderly Conduct and Criminal Damage to Property.

Tobacco and Alcohol Compliance checks:

Case #15-12010, 03/22/2015, at 1700 hrs:

On 03/22/2015, Officers conducted a tobacco compliance check at 13 randomly selected West Allis businesses that have a license to sell tobacco. The check was completed through the use of a 17 year old male who attempted to purchase a pack of cigarettes. Out of the 13 businesses, 10 asked for identification and would not complete the sale without it. Three of the businesses completed the sale and allowed the purchase of a pack of cigarettes without identification. The employees were cited for Selling Tobacco Products to Minors. Owners from all three businesses were also issued citations through the mail.

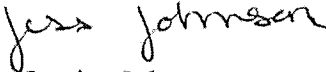

The three businesses are:

Express Pantry – 8530 W. Greenfield Av
Kwik Pantry – 5631 W. National Av
In and Out Grocery – 5932 W. Burnham St.

Violation of Wisconsin Clean Air Act Smoking Ban:

- No violations reported during this reporting period.
