To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter to appeal the enclosed order to register my dog as dangerous within the city limits. I have owned Bella for a little over a year and have never had any issues with her before, she has two small children in the home and has never gone after them. This was an isolated incident and I feel it is unfair to have me label her as dangerous. We have a fenced in backyard and if she is in the front yard which is very rare, she is tied up and someone is outside with her. She is a family pet and to ask me to either remove, euthanize or label her is wrong. The said incident was just an accident, there are no other documents of her attacking anyone/anything registered anywhere.

Sincerely,
