To whom it may Concern:

In response to the Order Dangerous Dog requirements of 7.126(6), I would like to contest this order and all of its compliance requirements. For the following reasons:

- The dog in question has not been deemed a dangerous dog at any point prior to this alleged incident.
- The dog in question is and has been current regarding Milwaukee County license.
- The dog in question frequents the county dog parks, usually the park located in Wauwatosa. There has never been an incident regarding the dog's interaction with the numerous people and other animals that it has had contact with.
- The dog is current on all of its vaccinations, and does have a regular vet. It was seen for the health screening requirement required by the Health Department. A copy of the screening was provided to the Health Department.
- They dog is already neutered, it is stated in the health screening provided to the Health Department.
- The given description of the dog does not coincide with the dog in question.

Any further concerns or questions please feel free to contact me at the address listed. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Michelle Immekus
