

To whom it may concern on June 30th my 79 yr old dad let my dog outside, which we never do unless she's on a leash. A neighbor was walking by with her dog, my dog was excited and ran out to greet them - her dog took off running mine stopped and came home - Nobody was hurt, my dog is not dangerous - in fact she plays with my 1 year old grandson - I don't have money for lawyers - and hoping to settle this been to court 2 times hoping someone can tell me what I need to do to prove my dog not dangerous.

Thanks,
