NARRATIVE

At the time of this investigation I was wearing my WAPD issued body camera, which was functional and activated. The body worn camera footage was categorized as Municipal Citation. See video recording for precise details as the following is a summary based off little or no review.

INITIAL CALL

On 12/07/19 at 2339hrs squads were dispatched to the Drunk Uncle, 1902 S 68th St, for a disorderly conduct complaint. While enroute to the call squads were advised that a white male was wearing a blue coat punching the windows of the bar. Dispatch stated the male subject shoved and hit a girl and the girl's husband punched the male in the face.

INTERVIEW OF TANYA KOZLIK

Upon arrival I spoke to Tanya Kozlik (W/F [REDACTED]) who stated she was at the bar drinking with a few friends when a unknown white male, later identified as Luke Straszewski (W/M [REDACTED]), walked up to another male in the bar and threw his arms around the friend, knocking his drink out of his hand. Tanya stated she does not know who Luke was.

Tanya got frustrated because the glass fell to the ground and broke. Tanya is a bartender and the glass breaking bothered her. Tanya explained that it bothered her so much, she felt she had to confront Luke about the glass breaking and causing the bartender to do work she should not have to do if he was not drunk.

Tanya stated she approached Luke to tell him how she felt. Tanya stated she told Luke it was not necessary that he went and knocked the glass out of the male's hand breaking the glass.

Tanya stated Luke turned around, and the look in his eyes made her super scared. Tanya stated Luke pushed her across her shoulders knocking her down to the ground. Tanya stated she did not see much after but what she did see was, her husband Ryan Kozlik (W/M 10/07/85), getting involved. Tanya stated she heard a scuffle and saw Ryan hit Luke and Luke get knocked out. Tanya believed if Ryan did not get involved she would have been beaten up by Luke.

Tanya stated she and Ryan were escorted behind the bar by the owner to cool off

On 12/09/19 at 2320hrs I received a phone call by Luke and Luke stated he had an orbital fracture in his left eye. I explained to Luke that the bartender was not the same person as the owner. Luke kept stating the bartender was a wrestler and kept throwing his weight around and that should not be allowed. Luke was very argumentative and adamant that he was punched multiple times in the face by the bartender "Neal". Luke stated he wanted to press charges for being punched. Luke stated he would accept the consequences for his actions.

On 12/07/19 at approximately 2339 hrs. Officers were dispatched to 1902 S. 68 St. for a report of a male punching the bar windows. Officers arrived on scene and located the offender, Luke J. Straszewski (m/w [REDACTED]) in the area of S. 70 St./W. Burnham St. I responded to the bar and spoke with the bartender, Katelyn B. Castle (f/w [REDACTED]).

CONTACT KATELYN CASTLE

Castle advised she was working as the bartender when she observed an altercation between a male and female. Castle stated the male, she had met that night and knew as "Luke" later determined to be Straszewski, caused a drink to spill on the ground. Castle stated a female, later identified as Tanya Kozlik (f/w [REDACTED]) yelled at Luke that the bartenders would have to clean up the mess now.

Castle stated Straszewski then grabbed Tanya and threw her on the ground, landing on top of her. Castle stated a few of the bar patrons began pulling Straszewski off of Tanya, but Straszewski began going after Tanya again. Castle advised Tanya's husband, Ryan J. Kozlik (m/w [REDACTED]) approached Straszewski and struck him in the face, causing Straszewski to fall to the ground.

Straszewski (M/W, [REDACTED]).

During my contact with Straszewski he was wearing a blue winter jacket, blue jeans, and a grey knit hat which matched the description of the individual who was at the business. Straszewski had facial injuries and blood on his hands. The area below his left eye was significantly swollen and bruised. It was swollen to the point where he could not open it. He also had what appeared to be blood on his lips and around his mouth.

Straszewski was highly intoxicated. He admitted to consuming five beers prior to me speaking with him. His right eye was red and glassy. I detected a strong odor of an intoxicating beverage which was emitting from his person. He also had difficulty standing up on his own. Straszewski was also slurring his words while speaking to me about the incident.

Straszewski advised he had been struck by an individual who he identified as Neal. According to Straszewski, Neal is a bartender at the business. Neal first made abusive statements to Straszewski similar to, "Piece of shit", "What are you doing" and "Why are you being stupid?" Straszewski was attempting to leave the business when he was attacked by Neal.

Straszewski stated he was "cheap shotted" for no reason. Straszewski was taken onto the ground by Neal, who proceeded to strike him in the face. He was struck in the face approximately ten times.

Straszewski denied attempting to strike or damage any property in the business. He also denied being involved in an argument or altercation with any of the patrons at the business. He continually stated he had done nothing that would have caused him to be attacked.

Straszewski was beginning to get loud and boisterous while speaking with officers. I attempted to explain that officers were currently at the business investigating the incident. Straszewski then made a statement similar to "He can do whatever the fuck he wants because he's a fucking bartender?" "Oh, he can do whatever the fuck he wants?"

Straszewski was ultimately taken into custody for Disorderly Conduct for his behavior at the business. I placed him in handcuffs, conducted a search of his person, and transported him to the WAPD for further processing. At the WAPD he was turned over to Officer Olson and Officer Budish for the booking process.

I learned from other officers it was determined Neal, the tavern employee, was not the one who had the altercation with Straszewski.
