WHEREAS, the 2017-2021 City of West Allis Strategic Plan Goal Number Three, Citizen Engagement, Strategic Action 3-3 states, "Optimize strong partnerships with stakeholders to create new volunteer, employment and training opportunities"; and

WHEREAS, volunteers are a valuable resource in enhancing and improving the City's ability to provide efficient and effective services to the community; and

WHEREAS, City government could not function without volunteers who serve on boards, commissions, task forces and committees; and

WHEREAS, volunteer service can enhance the City's ability to deliver services in a cost effective manner, provide a meaningful positive impact on City programs and the community, and may provide greater diversity in the workforce; and

WHEREAS, volunteering beyond City boards, commissions, task forces and committees makes the community stronger, improves the efficiency of the City, and allows more of the City's dollars to be allocated to local projects; and

WHEREAS, volunteers are motivated by the simple satisfaction of helping their fellow citizens and making their community a better place to live; and

WHEREAS, volunteers can improve or promote the quality of their own lives as well as the lives of those people they interact with in the course of their volunteering; and

WHEREAS, volunteering allows the volunteer to enhance his or her own skills, make contacts for possible employment and community involvement, and could be considered self-satisfying and may fulfill the volunteer's altruistic desires.
