2. Professional: Those positions whose work is predominantly intellectual and varied in character, are involved in consistent exercise of discretion and judgment in work performance, are involved in nonstandardized products or outputs and require knowledge of an advanced type in a field of science or learning customarily acquired by prolonged course of specialized intellectual instruction.

Notwithstanding the actual amount of confidential work conducted, but assuming good faith on the part of the employer, an employee may be found to be confidential where the person in question is the only one available to perform legitimate confidential work, and similarly, where a management employee has significant labor relations

(a) Regular Appointment: An employee who is hired to work the normal schedule of forty (40) or more hours per week on a continuing basis. Such employee fills a regularly constituted position established by the Common Council. An employee in this category receives a biweekly salary and may be in a probationary status. A regular employee is entitled to all employee benefits provided by law, to include, but not be limited to, those specified within this Section 2.76 and elsewhere in the City of West Allis Revised Municipal Code.

(b) Provisional Appointment: An employee who is hired to fill a regularly constituted vacant position on an interim basis pending the establishment of an eligible register, when the position cannot be temporarily filled by existing personnel. A provisional employee is rare and when an appointment is made in this status category, it general does not exceed a period of ninety (90) days. The appointment is made on an emergency basis in those instances where a department is unable to wait for an appointment to be made through normal channels. A provisional employee is compensated on a biweekly basis and is entitled to all the employee benefits provided by law, to include, but not limited to, those specified within this Section 2.76 and elsewhere in the City of West Allis Revised Municipal Code.

(c) Part-Time Appointment: An employee who is hired to work regular work hours which are distinctly shorter than the normal schedule of forty (40) hours per week. Such employment is steady and continuing. It may consist of either: 1) partial-day employment, or 2) full day, partial-week or partial-month employment. This employee is compensated on an hourly basis and holds a non-competitive appointment of indefinite duration. Employment status in this category may or may not confer the privilege of promotion, transfer or reinstatement. An employee in this status category who works a minimum of half-time (0.5 budgeted FTE) is entitled to the same employee benefits as a regular employee, except that there is a pro-ration of benefits based on budgeted FTE.

(d) Temporary Appointment: An employee who is hired for a limited time to meet a peak demand. Such increased demand may be occasioned by sporadic seasonal or special needs. An employee in this status category is compensated on an hourly basis only. Such employee is not eligible for benefits and may be terminated without notice when the purpose for which the employee was hired has been accomplished. Employment may be either full-time temporary or part-time temporary. Employment in this category does not confer the privilege of promotion, transfer, or reinstatement.

(e) Special Appointment: An employee who is hired for a specified duration or limited term under special agreement with some other agency of government such as County, State, or Federal governments or by the City itself on a special project basis. Generally the compensation is totally or partially subsidized by the sponsoring agency. Employment does not confer the privilege of reinstatement. Pay and benefits entitlement is based on the agreement with the governmental agency or the circumstances of the City's special project.

- (5) Creating and Filling Positions, Reductions in Force and Recall Procedures. The City shall fill regular positions, make reductions in force and recall individuals in accordance with the procedures set forth in Policy 1402 in the City of West Allis Policies and Procedures Manual. The City shall fill non-permanent positions in accordance with the procedures set forth in Policy 1408 in the City of West Allis Policies and Procedures Manual.
- (6) Voluntary Benefit Programs. The City offers voluntary benefit programs as set forth in Policy 1483 in the City of West Allis Policies and Procedures Manual.
- (7) Discipline and Grievance Procedure.

- (a) Discipline.

- 1. Department heads/appointing authorities have the authority to discipline their employees. Whenever a department head/appointing authority believes an employee, except those employees in the Executive Service/City Officers and protective service employees as noted in Subdivisions 2 and 3 below, has acted in such a manner to have merited discipline, the department head/appointing authority shall seek procedural advice from the City Attorney's Office and the Human Resources Director. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to, a verbal warning, written warning, suspension, demotion, termination, or a combination of the above if applicable. Upon determining an appropriate discipline, if any, the department head/appointing authority shall provide the employee with written notification of the disciplinary action being imposed and the reasons therefor, and a copy of the same shall be placed in the employee's official personnel file.

- 2. The discipline, removal and suspension of Executive Service employees/City Officers shall be governed by the provisions of Policy 405 in the City of West Allis Policies and Procedures Manual, Section 2.02 of this chapter, and Secs. 17.12 and 17.16, Wis. Stats.

- 3. The discipline of protective service employees under the jurisdiction of the Police and Fire Commission shall be governed by the provisions of Sec. 62.13, Wis. Stats.

- (b) Grievance Procedure. This grievance procedure, which addresses issues concerning workplace safety, discipline and termination, applies to all City employees except for those protective service employees under the jurisdiction of the Police and Fire Commission (covered by Section 62.13 Wis. Stats.)*, Executive Service employees, statutorily appointed employees identified specifically in statute as serving at the pleasure of an appointing authority and elected officials (covered by Sections 17.12 and 17.16 Wis. Stats. and/or Policy 405 in the City of West Allis Policies and Procedures Manual and/or covered by Section 2.02 of the Revised Municipal Code), and employees not under regular tenure (e.g., probationary, provisional, temporary, special, part-time less than 0.5 budgeted FTE). This procedure does not create a legally binding contract. The City reserves all rights and this procedure does not create a contract of employment. Employees of the City of West Allis are employed at-will and may resign with or without reason. The City may terminate the employment relationship at any time with or without reason and without violation of applicable law.

*NOTE: Civilian employees of the Police and Fire Departments have access to this Grievance Procedure.

1. Workplace Safety. "Workplace safety" means the conditions of employment related to physical health and safety of employees. Only those acts or omissions that involve a violation of state and/or federal regulations or laws on health and safety in the workplace will constitute a workplace safety violation. Any grievance filed alleging a workplace safety violation must be personal to the employee filing the grievance; no class actions or complaints on behalf of another may be filed under this procedure.

2. Discipline. Disciplinary action may include a verbal warning, written warning, suspension (with or without pay), demotion or termination, for rule or policy violations, poor performance or other acts of misconduct. The City reserves the management right, in its sole discretion, to impose the disciplinary action it deems appropriate to the particular circumstances. The following actions shall not be considered "discipline" under the terms of this grievance procedure:

- Layoffs or workforce reduction activities;
- Performance evaluations or reviews;
- Actions taken to address work performance, including use of a performance improvement plan or job targets;
- Nondisciplinary demotion due to medical condition, lack of qualification or license, or other inability to perform job duties;
- Documentation of employee acts and/or omissions in an employment file;
- Actions taken pursuant to an ethics ordinance created under Sec. 19.59(1m) Wis. Stats.;
- Nondisciplinary wage, benefit or salary adjustments;
- Transfer, change in assignment or assignment location;
- Placing an employee on paid administrative leave pending an internal investigation;
- Counselings, meetings or other predisciplinary actions.

3. Termination. "Termination" is generally defined as a discharge from employment for rule or policy violations, poor performance or other acts of misconduct. The following actions shall not be considered a "termination" under the terms of this grievance procedure:

- Voluntary quit, resignation, retirement or other separation initiated by the employee;
- Workforce reduction activities, layoff or failure to be recalled from layoff at the expiration of the recall period;
- Job abandonment, "no-call, no-show," or other failure to report to work;
- Nondisciplinary separation from employment due to medical condition, lack of qualification or license, or other inability to perform job duties;
- Job transfer or demotion;
- Action taken pursuant to an ethics ordinance created under Sec. 19.59(1m), Wis. Stats.; or

- End of employment and/or completion of assignment of a temporary, seasonal, contract or part-time employee.

4. Steps in Grievance Procedure.

a. Step 1. If an employee has a grievance, he/she shall first present and discuss the grievance orally with his/her immediate supervisor within two (2) workdays of knowledge of the issue/circumstances causing the grievance. The supervisor will reach a decision and communicate it orally to the employee within two (2) workdays.

b. Step 2. If the grievance is not settled at Step 1, the employee shall reduce the grievance to writing and present it to the department head/appointing authority within five (5) workdays after receiving communication of the supervisor's decision. The written grievance shall contain a clear and concise statement of the relevant facts, the date(s) the event occurred, the identities of the persons involved, documentation related to the grievance in possession of the employee, the actions taken to informally resolve the grievance, the reasons why the disciplinary action should be overturned, if applicable, and the remedy requested. A grievance alleging a workplace safety issue shall also identify the regulations or laws allegedly violated, if applicable. Within five (5) workdays, the department head shall furnish the employee with a written response to the grievance.

c. Step 3. If the grievance is not settled at Step 2, the employee may submit a written appeal to the Human Resources Director within five (5) workdays. The Human Resources Director, with the assistance of the City Attorney's Office, shall schedule the matter before an impartial hearing officer for a hearing as soon as practicable.

d. The failure of the employee to comply with the time limits prescribed in this grievance procedure shall be deemed a waiver of his/her right to proceed with the grievance and shall be a bar to judicial review. The employee may advance a grievance to the next step if a response is not provided within the designated timeframe. Any time limit prescribed herein may be extended by mutual written consent of the parties. The impartial hearing officer has the sole authority to determine whether a matter should be dismissed on procedural grounds, including failure to comply with a time limit prescribed herein.

5. Hearing.

a. The impartial hearing officer shall appoint a time and place for hearing the appeal and shall notify the department head/appointing authority and the affected employee of the time and place of such hearing. This time period may be changed by mutual agreement of the parties and the impartial hearing officer. The impartial hearing officer may, in their discretion, have the hearing transcribed. A copy shall be made available to the employee at his/her expense. The employee may be represented at the hearing by an attorney at the employee's own expense.

b. Subject to the impartial hearing officer's discretion, witnesses may appear at the hearing and present information under oath or affirmation. Written documents may be submitted. The rules of evidence may be used as a guideline but shall not be binding upon the impartial hearing officer. The appealing party carries the burden of production of evidence and the burden of proof. In disciplinary matters, the sole issue before the impartial hearing officer shall be: Based on the preponderance of the evidence presented, has the employee proven the disciplinary action was arbitrary and capricious? An action will be deemed arbitrary and capricious if it is unreasonable or without a rational basis (i.e., if any reasonable view of the evidence sustains the action, it may not be disturbed). In making such determination, the impartial hearing officer shall accord the decision of the department head/appointing authority a presumption of correctness and validity. In matters involving allegations of workplace safety violations, the sole issue before the impartial hearing officer shall be: Based on the preponderance of the evidence presented, has the employee proven there was a violation of state and/or federal regulations or laws on health and safety in the workplace?

c. If the impartial hearing officer determines the discipline or termination was arbitrary and capricious or that there was a workplace safety violation, it shall, in its sole discretion, determine what action shall be taken under the circumstances and as its rules may provide. The decision of the impartial hearing officer shall be a "final determination" as defined in Sec. 68.12, Wis. Stats. The decision shall be in writing, mailed to the department head/appointing authority and the affected employee, and shall contain notice that any appeal to the Circuit Court of Milwaukee County must be commenced within thirty (30) days of receipt thereof.

(7.5) Discipline, Removal and Suspension of City Officers.

(a) The discipline, removal and suspension of municipal officers (Executive Service/Department Heads) shall be governed by the provisions of Policy 405 in the City of West Allis Policies and Procedures Manual and Secs. 17.12 and 17.16, Wis. Stats.

(b) The discipline, removal and suspension of officers or employees within the unclassified service, who are sworn officers of the Police and Fire Departments, shall be governed by the applicable provisions of Sec. 62.13, Wis. Stats.

(a) Except as provided otherwise in these enactments, no factor of influence other than the fitness and ability of a person to perform the duties of the position in which he or she is acting or employed, or to which he or she is seeking appointment, shall affect in any detrimental way the appointment, promotion, transfer, suspension or termination of a person with respect to any employment within the scope of these enactments.

(b) The following practices are forbidden: Pernicious political activity by any City officer or employee; the giving of any consideration, whether financial or otherwise, in return for appointment to an office or position in the service of the City; the obstruction or deceiving of any person desiring to make an examination under the provisions of these enactments or desiring to secure information concerning any such examination; the deliberate mismarking or miscalculation of grades of any applicant taking an examination; the impersonation by any person of any other person in connection with the holding of an examination; and, the giving to or receiving by examination candidates, information or assistance enabling such candidates to obtain an unfair or improper advantage over other candidates for the same examination.
